

NARBERTH HAS A CHRISTMAS TREE

Permanent Community Tree Planted by Community Club.

CLUB MEETS TUESDAY

Those who had courage to face the cold on Monday, December 6, saw a very pretty ceremony accompanying the planting of the permanent community Christmas tree. The Narberth school children opened the program with a song, "America, the Beautiful."

Mrs. L. C. Douglass, president of the Community Club, told of previous community Christmases in Narberth, and filled in the earth about the tree. Burgess H. A. Frye accepted the tree for the borough. Mrs. H. I. McConnell recited Kilmer's "Trees" with effective simplicity. The children sang "Oh, Come, All Ye Faithful."

Through a misunderstanding Mr. Hackenburg, who was to represent the Pennsylvania Railroad, failed to arrive.

It is hoped that this sturdy fir will long survive to bear its gay lights through Christmas week and to stand as a symbol of community co-operation through the rest of the year.

The meeting of the Community Club on Tuesday, December 14, is an important one for two reasons. There are amendments to the constitution to be considered which should have the thoughtful attention of every member. Also, that constant friend, Mrs. H. S. Prentiss Nichols, is coming with a Christmas message, which, as always, will be pleasant to hear and valuable to remember.

A group from the Narberth schools will sing carols.

The regular meeting of the Mothers' Council on Monday, December 13, is announced in greater detail in another column.

The club gave a highly successful card party on Wednesday. The first prize went to Mrs. H. F. Stevens, while Mrs. L. C. Douglass carried off the second.

ROTARY HEARS SPEAKERS

Rotary education and business methods were the subjects of the December evening meeting of the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club held Tuesday night at the Cynwyd Club. Speakers were Joseph J. Skelton, Jr., J. A. Miller and Alvin E. Shull.

Plans are now being made to invite neighboring Rotary clubs to the meeting of January 4. There will be an international speaker at this who will talk on "Labor Troubles." A big turn out is anticipated for this event.

The meeting on December 21 will be given over to a fellowship program under the direction of squire Fred Walzer.

WINS IN SWIM

John C. Foster, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. James Foster, of Brookhurst avenue, started last Thursday night in the Middle Atlantic Swimming Championships held at the Penn A. C.

Foster swam for the Rittenhouse Square Club. He came through with flying colors in the men's 50-yard novice race, beating out a big field of contestants. Later in the evening Jack landed his second first place when he finished first in the 50-yard handicap race. Here Foster was given a four-second handicap.

HOLIDAY MARKET

Narberth members of the Republican Women of Pennsylvania will co-operate in the annual holiday market to be held on the 16th and 17th at 1511 Locust street.

On sale will be novelties, jewelry, perfumes, hosiery and imported goods.

Miss Margaret Burrell and Miss Marie Miesen have joined the staff of the Narberth National Bank during this month, in order to aid in the promotion of Christmas savings. They will concentrate their efforts on Christmas fund development.

NOVEMBER WAS ORDERLY

Contrasting to the extreme low temperature which has been experienced here so far this month, the temperature for November averaged close to normal. Such is the report of the Main Line Co-operative Weather Observer stationed at Narberth.

Two thunderstorms on the 9th and the 26th were the most unusual things that November had to display in the weather line. Precipitation for the month was heavy with a trace of snow on November 21.

The highest barometer reading for the month was 30.55, the Co-operative Observer reports. The lowest was 29.57. The highest temperature record for the month was 70 degrees; the lowest 20.

PAY YOUR TAXES NOW

And Avoid Penalty—Collector Is in Bank Building.

Few delinquent taxpayers realize that a stiff penalty and personal inconvenience await them, according to an old State law still in force, says Mrs. J. B. Diven, Narberth Tax Collector. If both property and personal tax are not paid by the first of the year it will be necessary, under the law, to make use of the legal measures provided, in order to collect.

Mrs. Diven has established her office in the Narberth National Bank, where she may be seen about tax payments.

The following is an extract from the collector's warrant:

"If any person shall neglect or refuse to make payment of the amount due by him for such tax within thirty days of the time of demand so made, it shall be the duty of the collector to levy such amount by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of such delinquent. And in case goods and chattels sufficient to satisfy the same, with costs, cannot be found you are hereby authorized to take the body of such delinquent and convey him or her to the jail of the proper county, there to remain until the amount of such tax, together with the costs, shall be paid or secured to be paid, or until he shall be otherwise discharged by due course of law." Act, April 15, 1834. P. L. 509. Sec. 21. Failure to receive a bill does not excuse a citizen from making his tax payment on time, the law says.

WILL JOIN LOWER MERION DISTRICT

Milk Control Co-operation Is Sought by Cheltenham and Abington.

The resignation of Dr. Gustave A. Van Lennep from the Lower Merion board of health was accepted at Monday night's regular December monthly meeting, in the township building at Ardmore. Dr. Van Lennep was Merion's representative on the board for a number of years. It is stated that he resigned because he has moved away from the township, and is no longer able to attend meetings regularly.

The appointment of a successor to Dr. Lennep is in the hands of President Frank H. Sykes of the Township Commission. No information is available at present concerning a new member, but it is expected that someone in Merion will be appointed in the near future.

The board received applications enabling act at least one public meeting must be held before a vote on the project can be taken by the Commissioners. All of this seems to preclude any sort of final action on zoning until spring.

The status of City avenue, Bala, which was the source of vigorous dissension at one of the preliminary zoning hearings last year, again came up for a vote at the meeting Monday. The vote confirmed the original decision of the Zoning Commission—that City avenue from near Fifty-fourth street to Conshohocken road be zoned for apartments and not for business.

Property owners along the street petitioned the board for a business zoning when the original classification became known last year. This was fought by owners in back of city line who presented an opposing petition requesting that the apartment zoning be retained.

TENNIS CLUB WILL GIVE FIRST DANCE

Premier of Series Will Be Given in Merion Tribute House.

TO BE HELD WEDNESDAY

The first of the series of four dances of the Narberth Tennis Association will be held Wednesday evening, December 15, at the Merion Tribute House, 625 Hazelhurst avenue, Merion. The club looks for an extra large attendance, if all the promises to be there materialize. Post card reminders of the date of the dance have been mailed to all members not signed up for the series, and it is hoped that they and all their friends will be on hand.

The committee reports: "We hope our customers won't have as hard a time to find the above address as a few of the notables who attended the dinner-dance. One prominent guest claimed he was chased out of several driveways backwards by police dog guards (we believe he thought they were pink elephants, to be exact). He probably didn't know any more about geography than Jim Volstead, Jr., who questioned Walter Cowin's epitomization of everything from the beginning and had to be assured that the ark was not in the Johnstown Flood.

"You can make yourself comfortable and we know you will enjoy the clubhouse, which has all modern facilities. Of course, we have excellent music and fine punch (but this time it won't be so fine that you can't see it).

"Remember the date—Wednesday the 15th, and every one that dances is invited.

"P. S.—Road maps furnished upon request! And the committee solicits inquiries. McKay, chairman; Fenno and Paige."

WHITE'S SWEET SHOP

Returns to Personal Management of Owners.

Announcement was made this week of the return to active management of White's Sweet Shop by Mr. and Mrs. J. Peter White, owners of the store.

Following a period of illness suffered by Mrs. White, management of the shop was assumed in August by the Misses Sexsmith and Mustard. This week Mrs. White took up her duties at the store and Mr. White resumed charge of the bakery and ice cream manufacturing.

The Sweet Shop was established seven years ago by Miss Ivy R. McLean as the Ivy Shop. It was later sold to the Betty Shop, of Philadelphia, who operated it as a branch store. Mr. and Mrs. White purchased it shortly after and changed the name to the present title.

In addition to maintaining the store, the firm operates its own bakery in the building back of Shea's Drug Store and manufactures its own ice cream, sales of which exceed 1000 quarts a day during parts of the summer.

You can save time, worry and money by buying in Narberth.

Hibernating Zoning Draft Sees Shadow and Prepares for Debut

The proposed Lower Merion zoning ordinance which has been hibernating in committee for the past three months is once more reported nearly completed and getting ready to make its debut before the Township Commissioners. The date set for the event this time is the January meeting of the Lower Merion Board.

That information was forthcoming following another "final" meeting of the Zoning Commission which was held Monday afternoon in the offices of Major John Lewis Evans, the chairman. This time it appears as if the proposed ordinance will really be started on its way. Practically all details of the complex job have been cleared up and the Zoning Commission is anxious to file its report with the township board before the end of the year in order

MOTHERS' COUNCIL INVITES

The Mothers' Council cordially invites all Narberth men and women to a talk by Dr. Thaddeus L. Bolton on "The Need of Education for Parents and Teachers, as Well as for Children," in the Junior High School auditorium Monday, December 13, at 8 P. M.

The fact that Dr. Bolton is head of the Psychology Department of Temple University, testifies to his authority on the subject. He is, in addition, a fascinating speaker. Hence, the council knows that an evening with him will be mentally stimulating and well spent.

$850 FOR RED CROSS

The annual Red Cross Roll Call for 1926, which ended November 25th, totalled $850 in contributions, it is reported. Mrs. Hugh Speed and Mrs. Harold C. Fenno were in charge of the drive, which was undertaken by the Women's Community Club.

Last year Narberth contributed $609 to the Red Cross during the Roll Call. Big-heartedness has thus increased to the extent of $241.

From each dollar membership 50 cents goes to Washington, D. C., for national Red Cross work. Local needs receive attention from the remainder.

PILOTS WALTON'S PLANE

English Flier Drives Plane of Former Narberth Resident.

Sir Alan Cobham, Great Britain's "Columbus of the Air," who startled the aviation world with a 28,000-mile flight from England to Australia and back this summer, drove Saturday from New York to Washington in the so-called "Moth Plane" belonging to Kenneth Betts Walton, son of Mrs. Clara R. G. B. Walton, of Haverford. Sir Alan was the guest of Mr. Walton at his home Saturday night.

Walton is a graduate of the Narberth High School, class of 1918, where he made an enviable scholastic record. He graduated from Haverford in 1922. His father, John G. Walton, who died in 1925, was long prominent in Narberth affairs.

Sir Alan, who was knighted by King George for his feat, is making a lecture tour of the United States in Walton's plane. Stopping over Saturday on his way from New York to Washington, he was met at the Navy Yard by a committee, given a reception at the Ritz-Carlton in the evening and continued to Washington yesterday. He will speak before the National Geographic Society in that city tonight.

JUDGE ABSENT AT OPENING OF COURT

Jurors from Lower Merion and Narberth Are Excused.

The first of three weeks of November term of Civil Court was opened Monday in Court Room No. 1, with Judges Williams and Knight sitting.

Judge Henry C. Niles, of York county, had been assigned by the Supreme Court to sit in the trial of cases this week, but word was received from him that on account of certain legal matters coming up in his home county he would be unable to get away.

Judge Smith, of Susquehanna county, who also has sat in Norristown before, has been obtained to aid the local judges in the trial of cases, but was unable to come before Tuesday so that Monday, but two court rooms were in operation.

Fannie Wentz, housewife, juror from district No. 2, Narberth, sought to be excused because she had an important engagement. She was excused for the balance of the term.

Mary Fox, housewife, Lower Merion, failed to respond to roll call, having previously been excused.

BASKETBALL SEASON ON

A fast basketball team, playing under the name of the "Narberth Boys' Club," held a practice game with the Merion Boys' Club last night in the Narberth Y. M. C. A. building. The Narberth team consists of Jiggs Torchiana, Greece Burgess, Spike Maguire and Johnny and Pete Eidenberg.

O. K. APPOINTMENT OF BENJ. J. COOK

New Scoutmaster Counts on Support—Fathers' Meeting Wednesday.

CELEBRATION FRIDAY

Much favorable comment has been heard concerning the selection of Benjamin J. Cook to head the Boy Scouts, as announced in last week's issue of "Our Town."

In the canvass of the homes of the scouts whose names appear on the 1926 roster, the members of the troop committee are meeting with the heartiest assurance of co-operation in the effort being put forth to place the local organization on a sound footing.

Among the boys, themselves, the comments are pointing toward a "waiting list," which will undoubtedly be the result if the present plans of holding to one troop are adhered to. This was brought about through the fact that the attendance had dropped to less than a dozen Scouts, which is the group who will form the nucleus of the new troop for next year.

Scoutmaster-elect Cook, upon being questioned on this point, said: "We will start with a clean slate on the first of the year and build up one troop with those boys who are actually in earnest in their desire to become proficient in Scoutcraft."

"There are a fine lot of boys in the borough and it may be possible to bring to the front more than one troop. We are planning to get one in good working order just as soon as possible after the first of the year, and then if the material is forthcoming, we will consider the formation of troop No. 2."

The Fathers' Association meeting scheduled for 8 o'clock next Wednesday evening in "The Cabin" bids fair to be well attended. Several of the parents of the boys who have been visited by the members of the troop committee are planning also to accompany their sons to the regular Scout meeting on the 17th, which will be held in Elm Hall.

Mr. Cook will be presented to the fathers at their meeting on Wednesday, and then to the boys on Friday, following which the year's activities will be concluded. From then until January 7 there will be no meeting for the boys.

The election of officers for 1927 will be held at the Fathers' Association meeting.

Yesterday there was a joint meeting scheduled of the Boy Scouts. Scouts from Wynnewood, with Eagle Troop, No. 3, of Logan, and a band of 70 pieces, were to meet in the Y. M. C. A. building. The visiting troops were under the leadership of "Jack" Foster, Wynnewood Scoutmaster, a former member of the Logan outfit.

OPEN WELFARE MEETING

Mrs. George Bank, of Rosemont, head of the Mothers' Assistance Fund of Montgomery county, will speak in the Legion rooms in the Community House, Monday, December 13, at 3 o'clock.

Everyone is invited to attend, especially members of the various churches and the Community Club. A consideration of the fund comes up in the Legislature in January. It is therefore advisable to hear Mrs. Bank's talk on the matter in full.

CHRISTMAS CAROLS ALREADY

The part of Narberth that lies within hearing distance of the Montgomery Arcade was entertained Tuesday afternoon at 5.15 by Christmas Carols. "W O O, the Wanamaker Store, Phila-del-phia," furnished the music, which was broadcast through an amplifier of the new Radiola shop, which opened this week behind Dannenhauer's Arcade Pharmacy at 8 Montgomery avenue.

At Lower Merion High

Hi-Yers Hear of Insurance.

The Hi-Y Club, organized throughout the many city and suburban high schools around Philadelphia, is again active in Lower Merion. Clean athletics, clean speech, clean thinking and clean living is its motto.

Last Tuesday evening, at the dining hall of the Ardmore Y. M. C. A., Benjamin Barron, insurance broker of Philadelphia and former Nebraska football luminary, talked on insurance as a profession. He pointed out the openings for those who applied themselves, and illustrated his talk with examples of men who had persevered and succeeded. A review of the many sorts of insurance was an interesting feature of his speech.

L. D. Grossman, physical director and faculty advisor of the High school, in commenting on the speech, also gave the insurance business a boost. The Club at Lower Merion was founded by Mr. Edwin D. Peake and has been in existence for two years. Wendell B. Stewart, of Cynwyd, is president of the active chapter.

One of the most active of clubs at the High school this year has been the Forum, presided by Francis Shoemaker, of West Conshohocken. The club, for the first time, has been divided into two sections, one for debaters, which at the present time is arranging debates with other schools, the other for those seeking instruction in elocution. The latter section studies public speaking, reading, and narration in general. Miss Dorothy Holland and Miss Margaret Dillen, of the High school English department supervise all phases studied.

Owing to the broken schedule of the Senior High School, many clubs have been unable to organize and function properly. The absence of assembly periods and the shift of classes greatly hinder the work of all clubs greatly. Among the most active of societies forced to disband this year are the French Club, Spanish Club and Senior and Dramatic Clubs.

Christmas vacation will begin Friday, December 24, after the usual Christmas program given on Thursday, December 23. The vacation terminates on Monday, January 3, being 11 days in duration.

Y. M. C. A.

In preparation for an active season in the Physical Department the Main Line Christian Association has thoroughly overhauled its filtration plant and made repairs in the swimming pool. The locker room has also been newly painted, giving these largely used features a very attractive appearance.

The popularity of swimming is on the increase as an all-the-year-round exercise and sport. Indulgence in the sport is however frequently limited by lack of proper facilities during the cool days of the fall and the colder winter months. Recognizing this demand the Y. M. C. A. has thoroughly overhauled its entire filtration system to insure an adequate supply of clean water at all with the subject, a study of the process of filtration will prove interesting. First, there is a large steel tank with a capacity of about 500 gallons able to withstand a pressure of 500 pounds. On the bottom are a number of pipes with numerous perforations, through which the water, after it has been purified, must pass on its way to the pool. This is what is known as the strainer system. These pipes are covered with four grades or sizes of gravel, the largest being placed at the bottom, then comes a layer of specially selected sand which does not pack when water-soaked. With the addition of an electrically operated pump and an alum tank, which contains a quantity of alum, used as a coagulant, the filtration equipment is complete.

The process of purification is as follows:—When the pump is started the water is drawn from the pool, passing through a pipe until it reaches the alum tank where a very small portion of the alum water is mixed with a much larger quantity of the water coming from the pool. It has now reached the filter. The impurities, through the process of coagulation, remain on the sand bed at the top; the water passes through the sand bed, the four layers of gravel, then through strainers and out into the pool clear and sparkling, safe and clean.

Once a day or oftener the filter must be thoroughly washed to dispose of any accumulations that may have gathered. This is accomplished by simply flushing the filter under high pressure from the bottom, the water forcing its way rapidly upward through the various layers of gravel and sand out into the sewer, taking with it any impurities that may have been held in a solid mass at the very top.

This process carried on day and night renders the water sanitary and safe, much safer than the "ole swimmin' hole" or any natural body of water which, due to modern industry and congestion of population, require our streams and waterways to carry a burden of pollution unknown a generation ago.

Sunday's Storm.

The storm which swept this section of the country Sunday was of the real old-fashioned type, assuming the proportions of a miniature blizzard and in addition to causing genuine inconvenience greatly interfered with traffic by automobile.

The snow, which covered the ground to a depth of at least four inches, was followed in the afternoon by rain and sleet driven along by gale-like winds from the North. It was a real debut by King Winter and was the earliest heavy snowfall for years.

CANNEL COAL "The Safety Burner"

Whether wood shingles or fire-resisting roofing cover your house, it is best to be particular about your method in handling the open fireplace.

It is true that often, from your blazing fire of logs, great chips of burning wood will be carried up the chimney by a strong draft—sometimes dying a natural death as they shoot into the air—at other times playing a dangerous game of hide-and-seek with your roofing material.

The use of Cannel coal prevents this hazardous spark-flying. The blaze which Cannel coal makes is strong, and bright—but very clean—for there are never any escaping sparks to fly up the chimney. This is one reason why so many people are changing their log fires to Cannel coal—the safety burner.

Then, too, it is cheaper, at $14.00 a ton.

The latest organization appears to be that in Italy for improving the condition of Mussolini as a life insurance risk.

Now that the mail order houses have combined, they will save thirty or forty millions for their customers in the cost of catalogues.

It is alleged, in short, that the head of the "House of David" was just playing an old game under a new title.

It is estimated that in 1928 it will be Pa Ferguson's turn to vindicate the family.

In Ohio they presented Queen Marie with a silver spade to be used in her garden back home. But maybe they don't fish with worms in Rumania.

Just why Christ's birthday should be profaned by persons spelling it "Xmas" is hard to understand.

Perhaps King Ferdinand wanted Queen Marie to hurry home to attend to the Christmas shopping. It's only so many days, etc.

Of course, Queen Marie may have been called back, but our notion is that she knew when she had enough.

To the Editor of "Our Town:"

The religious questionnaire being sponsored by the church advertising department of the International Advertising Association interests me very much. I say "interests," but perhaps that is too strong a word. Personally, I do not find myself enthusiastic about it! The English newspapers have just completed a similar questioning of their readers and it requires neither a prophet nor a son of a prophet to predict that the American attempt will produce approximately similar results.

We shall be heartened by seeing that "God" and "immortality" and "prayer" are still words that stand for ideas; we shall be discouraged by seeing that the active workers in the churches are few, while those who regularly have family worship in their homes are still fewer.

The reason I am rather lukewarm toward the whole survey is briefly this: Those whose answers I should like to know will not bother even to give the questions more than a cursory glance, perhaps will not even see them! In addition to this, the mere "Yes" or "No" is valueless. It reminds me of Humpty Dumpty's reply to Alice, "When I use a word it means just what I choose it to mean—neither more nor less."

A value, greater than the results of this questionnaire can possibly give, would be achieved if the readers of a metropolitan newspaper could ask questions rather than answer them. I believe that here in Narberth are many folks who, when they do think of religion, think of it in terms of questions they cannot answer and problems they cannot solve. Belief is for them as Carroll has again so poignantly presented it in the words of the White Queen.

"I can't believe that," says Alice. "Can't you?" the Queen said in a pitying tone. "Try again: draw a long breath, and shut your eyes. I daresay you haven't had much practice. When I was your age I always did it for half an hour a day. Why, sometimes, I've believed as many as six impossible things before breakfast!"

What the men and women of Narberth believe about religion ought to interest the churches but little. What these same men and women face as problems and perplexities of faith and conduct ought to keep our churches alive to the fact that

"There lives more faith in honest doubt,

Believe me, than in half the creeds."

What burdens they bend beneath, what tasks they face with chagrin at their human impotency, what dismay fills their souls as they miss the Light—these are the questions and problems our churches must answer! Do they?

ROBERT E. KEIGHTON.

To the Editor of "Our Town."

Dear Editor:
Imagine the consternation of the members of the Junior Community Club when they learned last week that their Victrola, the gift of a former member now deceased, had been removed from its case and had completely disappeared! The Victrola, which was locked, stood in a locked room, the old Red Cross room of the Y. M. C. A. building, which was also locked. Its case, bearing the little bronze tablet engraved with the name of the donor, etc., still stands there. Hoping that the "removal" of the Victrola was not a malicious theft, the club wishes to announce its loss with the hope of recovering its property. If the disappearance of the Victrola was the result of a practical joke, we trust that we have laughed long enough and that the joker, realizing the sentimental value of the machine to us, will return it before any further action will be necessary.

BARCLAY ELECTED

Captain of Lower Merion High Quintet Is Junior President.

Samuel Barclay, a Junior, was elected captain of the Lower Merion High School basketball team this week. No leader was selected last spring by the basketball lettermen as practically the entire team was then listed for graduation and there was no suitable candidate available for the post at that time.

The choice of Barclay was made by the regulars on this year's quintet. He was a first string substitute last season and was regarded as the logical selection for the captaincy. Barclay is also president of the Junior class and the past season was an end on Coach Adam's football eleven.

MARATHONS AND LIONS
TWO TO ONE WINNERS

Lions Win First Half of Season in Interchurch Bowling.

The Methodist Marathons won two games of their match against the Baptist Boosters on Friday evening, December 3.

On Monday evening, December 6, the big battle of the first half of the season was fought between the Battlers and Lions. When the roaring had ceased it was found that the Lions had won two games of the match and also the highest average for the first half of this season.

The Battlers had hopes of tying the Lions in the last game of the match, but when the pins began to fall backwards like dominoes and knock down the head pins that were missed when the Lions made an off shot it was known that fate had decided in favor of the "Lucky Lutherans." However, the last game furnished considerable excitement. The scores were tied to the end of the ninth frame, but the Lions rolled off the tenth with a mighty roar and the day was won.

Little Chats About Your Health, No. 7

Are You "Thinking"
Twenty Years Ahead?"

"Every normal, healthy minded person wants to live as long as he can and to enjoy his full span of life without the burdens of chronic disease. But to do so he must think 20 years ahead and when he reaches thirty-five or forty have some competent physician check up regularly on his health condition.

"He cannot subject his body and mind to the strain of the strenuous life, eat what and when he pleases and expect to be hale and hearty and to keep going to 70.

"If the average adult would pause every year long enough to take a health inventory, not so many would drop in their tracks at 50 or thereabouts."

The above was expressed by a physician. We reproduce it because it reflects exactly what we have constantly advised and it is "to the point."

Consult your physician promptly on all health matters and make Koch's your prescription headquarters.

ASKS FOR RENEWALS

Library Association Sends Out Notices.

Notices were in the mail this week of the expiration of memberships in the Narberth Community Library Association. This association was formed in May of 1925 and is composed of all residents of the vicinity who wish to express their appreciation and support of the work being done by the Narberth Community Library. The fees are $1 each year up to $25, which pays for a life membership, and any one is eligible on payment of the dollar or more.

Members of the association have no other privileges than that of the feeling of satisfaction that they are contributing to a community work which aims to serve every person in the borough, men, women and children, but this satisfaction has inspired about 250 persons to make such a contribution. The work of the library is done entirely by volunteers and there is no expense connected with it except for books, supplies and equipment, and it is to this purpose that membership fees are applied. Money or checks may be sent to Miss Anna MacKeag, president of the association, or to Mrs. Robert F. Wood, librarian, or may be left with any of the desk assistants at the library.

FIRESIDE

Miss Kathryn L. Burgess entertained at bridge Tuesday evening at her home on Hampden avenue. Those present were the Misses Elinor and Lillian Diamond, Miss Edythe Maguire, Miss Catherine Torchiana, Miss Elinor Burgess, Miss Alice Smith, of Merion, and Miss Marion Bryon, of Philadelphia.

Continuing its policy of giving dances two or three times every year, the Lantwyn Lane Association recently gave a dance in the Y. M. C. A. Building. Ice cream, cake and punch were served in the decorated hall. Mrs. Walter Nash and Mrs. George Morhard were hostesses.

Mrs. Bruce Beyer, of Chicago, is visiting her sister, Miss Margaret McDevitt, at Windsor avenue.

An interesting talk was given by Mr. Elmer Menges to the Luther League Sunday evening. Tomorrow evening's subject will be "What shall we do for the children of our community." Robert Gowland will lead.

A men and boys' meeting will be held in the Lutheran Church Thursday at 8 P. M. It will be a pleasant, informal, get-together meeting, to which all men and boys are invited. Refreshments will be served. Miss Evelyn Jefferis, of Forest avenue, spent the Thanksgiving holidays with former schoolmates in East Aurora, N. Y.

T. A. Elwood, of Haverford avenue, visited relatives in Atlantic City over the week-end.

Medford C. Carver, of New York, visited friends on Montgomery avenue the first part of the week.

Harvey W. Madara, of Hagys Ford road, won a $5 gold piece, third prize in a missing word contest conducted by the Ardmore Main Liner.

JOTTINGS

From the Diary of a Well-Known Narberth Resident.

Well, I interviewed the Kiyugan Camp Fire Girls at their meeting on Wednesday evening, the last meeting before the big bazaar. Oh, I told you about their bazaar that is going off with a bang and some noise today, December 11, on Haverford avenue, next to the Ewald Pastry Shop. It certainly is great the way the girls stay in at night and work their heads off for it, so I think they deserve a little extra advertisement. This is what they told me:

There is a grab-bag for children, and older people, too, where they may spend their money. There is a pirates' plunder shop, where you may do some of your Christmas shopping. But don't spend all your time there because there are the afternoon tea tables, which are served by girls in old-fashioned gowns. (All the girls are dressed in costumes appropriate for their tables.) There is the sugar bowl! Step up, boys; don't be bashful! And then the cake table. M-m-m! All are guaranteed home-baked cakes. And I think they said something about a fortune-teller! You know there was one there last year. (Oh, boys, wasn't she a pippin?) Now, I'm not positively sure that she is here again this year, but it won't do any harm for you to drop in and take a look for yourself.

The girls told me that they had new novelties this year, cute, little—Oh, that would be telling, but you find out for yourself. I almost forgot, there is going to be a pair of new, shining andirons that will just fit your fireplace. Well, "huff sed."

At least, I am out for a good time and I'm not going to miss the bazaar if I know anything about it!

Good-bye; I'll see you all at the Camp Fire Girls' bazaar. Hey, there, Mr. Pleeceman, keep that crowd back! One at a time, ladies!

DRIVER HELD FOR MANSLAUGHTER

Present Charge Is Basis of Fifth Arrest in Two Years.

DIES AFTER INJURIES

Edward Gross, 21 Chestnut avenue, Ardmore Park, was held without bail for Court by Coroner George Huff, of Montgomery, on a charge of manslaughter, at an inquest held last Tuesday night at Ardmore. He is accused of causing the death of Mrs. Sally Quinby, 140 Grandview road, Ardmore, who died early the previous day in the Bryn Mawr Hospital from injuries received in an automobile collision September 27.

It was decided at the hearing that Gross had been arrested five times in the last two years, mostly on charges of traffic violations.

A light sedan which Mrs. Quinby was driving was struck by a car driven by Gross and overturned at Spring avenue and Wynnewood road, Ardmore. Mrs. Quinby was unconscious or delirious during the two months she was in the hospital.

It was revealed Gross had been arrested by Lower Merion police on April 26, 1925, for intoxication and disorderly conduct; May 28, 1925, arrested and fined for speeding and reckless driving; June 26, 1925, arrested and fined for disorderly conduct, and July 26, 1926, arrested and fined for blocking fire apparatus.

Two girls, Mary Burns and May McGee, both of Ardmore Park, who were riding with him at the time of the last accident, escaped with slight cuts and did not go to a hospital. It was testified he had taken the girls for a ride during their lunch period and was returning to their place of business after having covered six miles in 15 minutes making two stops. Gross was said to have been speeding when the accident occurred.

MURRAY GIBSON WILL LOST

But Duplicate is Filed Disposing of His $162,000 Estate.

Letters testamentary have been granted in the $162,000 estate of Murray Gibson, of Merion. The petition states that after the will was written on April 15, 1926, it was taken to the home of Murray Gibson, Jr., where it was evidently mislaid. A copy of the will was attached. A son, Murray Gibson, Jr., is given $12,000. The residue is apportioned as follows:

One-fourth to his wife, Eleanor H. Gibson; one-fourth to each of his sons, John Hollenbach and Murray, Jr., and one-fourth to the trustees, the income to go to a daughter, Juliette E. Gibson Casey, during her lifetime; then at her death to her children. The sons are named executors.

Mr. Gibson, until he retired was in the painting and decorating business. He was president of the Musical Fund Society. He died in Jefferson Hospital on June 30.

For Pleasant Christmas Shopping This Year

By all means, take the youngsters into the crowded department stores once this season. It will be tiresome, but the milling crowds, the worn-out shopgirls, the long delays, will be compensated for by the excitement a child finds in such confusion. But after that one trip save yourself hours and dollars by making your purchases at home, from the complete stocks of our local firms. Choose gifts in peace. Buy from your friends and neighbors and lend your support to local industry. You, too, will benefit!
